

PRS Statement of Rights

The PRS agency shall:

Assure compliance with the PRS Statement of Rights, post the Statement of Rights within the facility and develop the Individual Rehab Plan in compliance with individual rights.

- a) An individual has the right to be treated with dignity and respect and to be free from physical and mental harm.
- b) An individual has the right to receive PRS in a culturally respectful and nondiscriminatory environment.
- c) An individual has the right to receive PRS in the least restrictive setting that fosters recovery and promotes growth.
- d) An individual has the right to access competent, timely and quality service to assist with fulfillment of a goal.
- e) An individual has the right to express a goal which is individualized and reflects informed choice concerning selection, direction or termination of service and service plan.
- f) An individual has the right to choose a service based on individual need, choice and acceptance and not dependent on compliance or participation with another treatment or rehabilitation service.
- g) An individual has the right to keep and use personal possessions in a manner that is reasonable to the service and location. Any necessary limitations shall be clearly communicated and defined, universally applied, and documented.
- h) An individual has the right to offer an opinion and belief.
- i) An individual has the right to file a complaint related to PRS and to have the complaint addressed.
- j) An individual has the right to have the assistance of a personally chosen representative or advocate in expressing a complaint.
- k) An individual has the right to be able to contribute to, have access to, and control release of the individual record.
- l) An individual has the right to have information and records concerning service treated in a confidential manner, as required under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) and the act of August 1, 1996 (Pub. L. No. 104-191, 110 Stat. 1936).
