

PACTT AFFILIATE PUBLIC REPORT

Agencies affiliated with the Pennsylvania Academic, Career and Technical Training (PACTT) Alliance have voluntarily agreed to meet standards in one or more of the following areas: Academics; work related services; and job skills training. Through their efforts, the affiliated agencies work to support goals outlined in the Advancing Competency Development: A White Paper for Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania’s Juvenile Act. These include, but are not limited to:

- Helping youth improve their chances of having a successful educational experience.
- Developing a set of study and learning skills and basic reading, writing, and math skills.
- Helping youth to catch up in school and advance in school to the highest possible level of academic achievement.
- Developing workforce skills for getting a job, keeping a job, and achieving promotion.
- Developing workforce programs that promote economic self-sufficiency, are grounded in principles of youth development, and connected to further education and long-term career opportunities.
- Helping older youth improve their chances of being economically self-sufficient after high school.
- Developing competencies that will enable youth to become responsible and productive members of the community.

Note: During the reporting period the number of individuals that would have been included in the report was less than the minimum number being utilized for the purpose of ensuring confidentiality and anonymity. Therefore, outcome data is not included. However, information related to the affiliate’s program and its offerings is included below.

Program Description:

Adelphoi is a principal provider of services to at-risk youth and families, and the leading provider of delinquency services to youth in Pennsylvania dedicated to providing a continuum of quality services to children and families. Headquartered in Latrobe, Westmoreland County, Adelphoi has programs in over 30 counties throughout the state, including group homes, foster and adoptive services, education, and in-home and mental health programs. Adelphoi is focused on serving communities of need through exemplary and affordable human service programs for children, youth, and families.

As a licensed private academic school, the educational opportunities at Adelphoi Education at Williams are aligned with Pennsylvania Department of Education's regulations and guidelines and also includes:

Small class size, Full academic schedule that is individualized to meet students' needs with additional support in mathematics and language arts, Curriculum based on PA Core, Remedial support and credit recovery available, Support from special education coordinators in an inclusive setting, Additional support from residential staff, Students take part in a behavior modification program and character education to promote positive behavior and academic performance.

Adelphoi Education at Williams is a Title I school. A school wide program is a comprehensive reform strategy designed to upgrade the entire educational program in a Title I building. The primary goal of a Title I school is to ensure that all students, particularly those who are low achieving, demonstrate proficient and advanced levels of achievement on state academic standards.

The emphasis of a school wide program is on serving all students, improving all structures that support student learning, and combining all resources, as allowed, to achieve a common goal. Our school wide plan was developed with the help of teachers and administrators.

NOTE: Since the majority of students at this school site often remain with the program for several years, the report may not reflect more than ten successful discharged students for the time period.
