

PACTT Affiliate Public Report

Agencies affiliated with the Pennsylvania Academic, Career and Technical Training (PACTT) Alliance have voluntarily agreed to meet standards in one or more of the following areas: Academics; work related services; and job skills training. Through their efforts, the affiliated agencies work to support goals outlined in the Advancing Competency Development: A White Paper for Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania’s Juvenile Act. These include, but are not limited to:

- Helping youth improve their chances of having a successful educational experience.
- Developing a set of study and learning skills and basic reading, writing, and math skills.
- Helping youth to catch up in school and advance in school to the highest possible level of academic achievement.
- Developing workforce skills for getting a job, keeping a job, and achieving promotion.
- Developing workforce programs that promote economic self-sufficiency, are grounded in principles of youth development, and connected to further education and long-term career opportunities.
- Helping older youth improve their chances of being economically self-sufficient after high school.
- Developing competencies that will enable youth to become responsible and productive members of the community.

Limitations of this report should be noted. Data included in the report includes only those youth that were determined by the affiliate to have successfully completed the program and were recommended for discharge. In addition, academic data does not include youth having received services for less than 90 days. As a result, the average length of stay for youth in the affiliation areas may differ. Data included in the report was based on self-reported information provided by the affiliated agency. Reports were generated, using the PACTT database, by the affiliate and reviewed by the affiliate for accuracy prior to being posted for public viewing.

Program Description:

Mathom House has served adolescent males with histories ranging from rape to problem sexual behaviors. Mathom House is a Residential Treatment Facility(RTF) with a specialized education program. The program is situated on 10 acres in the heart of Bucks County and is conveniently located close to major travel routes and public transportation. Mathom House aims to rehabilitate your son; challenging him to fully admit his sexual misconduct; fully appreciate the harm he has caused his victims, their families, and his community; and find ways to avoid re-offending. Mathom House has been fulfilling this mission for the last 25 years, and has treated over 200 boys, while many others have received outpatient services from us. A recently conducted research study concluded that the rate of sexual re-offending was 0%, well below nationally published standards.

General description of how the agency provides instruction in the areas of English; mathematics, science, social studies; physical education and health; and fine arts.

We supply direct small group instruction. Each member of our teaching team is certified in one or more areas of instruction. We align our courses and content to the PA SAS system. Through hands on activities, individualized instruction, and responsible use of technology we supply services that meet or exceed state, local, and national standards for education on the secondary level. Additionally, our teachers take part in regular team building and professional training so that we continue to supply evidence based programing.

General description of academic services the agency provides beyond those required by the Department of Education.

We design our services to best meet the individual needs of our students. Our classes are designed to be small group to allow for optimal attention for each student. Moreover, we meet each student where they are academically. Student skill levels are determined in various areas including, but not limited to, reading comprehension, mathematical applications, and critical thinking skills. Students are supplied real world applications and we continually progress monitor and adapt programing as needed.

General description of how the agency offers GED courses or makes them available through another entity.

Our first priority is to support each of our students in a way that is best suited for them individually. Part of how we go above and beyond is helping our students realize that past mistakes do not need to define them. Whenever possible we work with students so that we can get them back on track for earning their high school diploma. If it is not possible to get a student back on track through our one to one credit recovery program, we then we support them through the GED process through direct instruction with a certified teacher and test preparation mentor.

General description of how the agency offers credit recovery courses or makes them available through another entity.

We offer several options for students needing credit recovery. Options include, but are not limited to, one to one instruction with a PA certified teacher in the area of deficit, small group instruction, and our extensive summer Title One program. The director of education meets with each student and together they go through a credit review and discuss student options.

Description of the agency's credit bearing/non-credit bearing summer school programming.	We offer both extended year for specific IEP documented needs and a full Title One supported summer program. Each summer we supply different classes based on student interests and survey results. A few of the courses we have offered in the past summers include, but are not limited to the following, The Chemistry of Ceramics, Creative Writing, Environmental Hikes, Horticulture, Fiction to Film, Zoology, Math in the Real world, Statistics, Reading for Understanding, Edible Science, World Cultures, and Food from Around the World.
Description of the agency's Special Education services.	Our team is dedicated to meeting the diverse needs of our students while abiding by IDEA, 04 and the IEP process. Each of our education team members is trained and has experience diversifying instruction in the inclusive classroom. Our team includes three special education certified teachers. Additional specific services such as occupational or speech therapy is provided by our contract partners at Bucks County Intermediate Unit.
