Implementation of American Dental Association (ADA) Claim Form – Version 2012

Effective October 1, 2013, the Department of Human Services (the department) will begin accepting the 2012 version of the ADA claim form for dental services.

The department will continue to accept the 2006 ADA claim form through March 31, 2014. Any 2006 ADA claim forms received by the department on or after April 1, 2014 will be returned to the provider with a letter requesting resubmission using the 2012 ADA claim form.

The department is discontinuing use of the 2006 ADA claim form because it does not support the reporting of diagnosis codes that are captured on the 2012 ADA claim form.

The instructions for use of the 2012 ADA claim form will be available effective October 1, 2013 in the Dental Provider Handbook, which may be viewed by accessing the PROMISe™ provider handbooks page of the department's website at the following link:
